Chaucer's Casualty Team pedal to Paris for charity

Chaucer's Casualty Team is proud to undertake a London to Paris bike challenge to raise money for two charities – Make a Wish and the Alzheimer's Society.

Mark Lawrence, John Fowle, David Barber, Ian Noble, Steve Bushell, Tim Hoffman, Richard Everall, Marie-Claire Bessada and Emma Phillips will start their bike journey from Chaucer's Fenchurch Street offices at the early hour of 7am on Wednesday 4 June 2014. They aim to arrive at the Eiffel Tower in Paris on Friday 6

June 2014, approximately 290 miles later.

The Make a Wish Foundation grants wishes for children and young people fighting life threatening conditions. The Alzheimer's Society works to improve the quality of life for those living with dementia

Mark Lawrence, Head of the Casualty Practice said: "We look forward with some trepidation to completing the cycle ride to Paris with the Casualty team of riders and support crew. This sort of event is fantastic for team building, raising fitness levels and raising money for two very worthy causes".

The team are taking donations via their fundraising page:

About us

Chaucer's London to Paris bike ride is supported by the Chaucer Foundation, which was created in 2013 to provide volunteering, fundraising and support for charitable initiatives local to Chaucer offices. The aim of the Foundation is to help make a real difference in our communities and to inspire greater volunteer contribution in improving disadvantaged lives.

Organisations may apply for grants at any time. Applications for Foundation funding will be reviewed and approved quarterly by the Chaucer Foundation Board. For further information please contact enquiries@chaucer-foundation.org.uk
